

DEARDEN CONSULTING

who we are and what we do

We are a leading development consultancy specialising in health and social care.

We work with our clients to help them improve performance by:

- Improving their customer experience
- Creating a more capable and motivated workforce
- Improving their use of resources

We do this across the UK and internationally, by facilitating:

- Service Redesign
- Strategy and Policy Development
- Leadership Development
- Coaching and Personal Development
- HR and Workforce Development

Our outstanding track record and reputation is built upon:

- Our focus on using robust processes to secure successful outcomes
- The calibre and experience of our consultancy team
- Our in-depth knowledge of health and social care in the UK and internationally
- Our creativity
- Our determination to deliver results for you
- Our ability to build real partnerships
